

LIST OF TABLES

Table 1. Lexical similarity percentage (Backstrom 1992: 40).....	7
Table 2. Main reference texts from previous studies .....	10
Table 3. Summary of fieldwork .....	10
Table 4. Personal information of principal consultants.....	11
Table 5. Main reference texts from my field data .....	12
Table 6. Consonants .....	15
Table 7. Vowels .....	17
Table 8. Type-I personal prefixes (@-).....	36
Table 9. Type-II personal prefixes (@ <sup>ˈ</sup> ) .....	36
Table 10. Type-III personal prefixes (@ <sup>ˈ</sup> ) .....	36
Table 11. Three morphological groups of countable nouns with bútan ‘many’ .....	40
Table 12. Distribution of the major types of plural suffixes .....	41
Table 13. Relation between the countability and the function.....	42
Table 14. sis ‘person, people’ with or without a general number suffix.....	45
Table 15. men ‘who’ with or without a general number suffix .....	45
Table 16. bes ‘what’ with or without a general number suffix .....	45
Table 17. Case markings with nouns of each class .....	49
Table 18. Details of position-direction combinations .....	61
Table 19. Nominaliser suffixes .....	70
Table 20. Demonstrative and interrogative adjectives .....	75
Table 21. Morphemes of the class-number axis.....	76
Table 22. Morphemes, frames and forms of the demonstrative axis in two series .....	77
Table 23. Personal pronouns .....	79
Table 24. Declension of personal pronouns .....	80
Table 25. Demonstrative and interrogative pronouns .....	80
Table 26. “Emphatic” pronoun @ <sup>ˈ</sup> i .....	81
Table 27. More “Emphatic” pronoun @-@ <sup>ˈ</sup> i .....	81
Table 28. Reflexive pronoun @- khár .....	81
Table 29. Declension with personal prefixes .....	82
Table 30. Adjectivaliser suffixes (in part) .....	89
Table 31. Cardinal numerals .....	95
Table 32. Ordinal numerals.....	96

Table 33. Classifier suffixes for numerals .....	97
Table 34. Numeral roots.....	97
Table 35. Classified numeral nouns ‘ n day(s)’ .....	97
Table 36. The supplementary alternation of the copula root in the three major dialects .....	104
Table 37. Basic personal suffixes for copula .....	105
Table 38. Basic stems of copula.....	106
Table 39. Imperfective stems of copula .....	106
Table 40. Relation between the features of roots and the transitivity of stems.....	111
Table 41. Suppletive distribution of stems for ‘give’ and ‘eat’ .....	115
Table 42. Suppletive distribution of stems for ‘come’ and ‘go’ .....	116
Table 43. “Plural stems” (extracted from Berger 1998c).....	117
Table 44. Labelling by each scholar for -m .....	122
Table 45. Indicative personal suffixes for verbs .....	122
Table 46. Present forms of copula.....	124
Table 47. Past forms of copula.....	125
Table 48. Functions of simple finite forms of verb in indicative.....	126
Table 49. Simple finite forms of še- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’: 3SG.HF .....	126
Table 50. Future forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	127
Table 51. Future forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	127
Table 52. Future forms of man’- ‘to become’ .....	128
Table 53. Simple past forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	130
Table 54. Simple past forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	130
Table 55. Simple past forms of man’- ‘to become’ .....	130
Table 56. Simple past forms of jú- ‘to come’ .....	131
Table 57. Prospective forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	132
Table 58. Prospective forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	132
Table 59. Prospective forms of man’- ‘to become’ .....	133
Table 60. Prospective forms of jú- ‘to come’ .....	133
Table 61. Prospective forms of ní- ‘to go’ in Nager.....	136
Table 62. Functions of complex finite forms of verb in indicative.....	136
Table 63. Complex finite forms of še- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’: 3SG.HF .....	137
Table 64. Present forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	137
Table 65. Present forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	138
Table 66. Present forms of man’- ‘to become’ .....	138
Table 67. Past imperfect forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	140

Table 68. Past imperfect forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	140
Table 69. Present perfect forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	141
Table 70. Present perfect forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	141
Table 71. Present perfect forms of man’ ‘to become’ .....	142
Table 72. Present perfect forms of jú- ‘to come’ .....	142
Table 73. Past perfect forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	144
Table 74. Past perfect forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	144
Table 75. Past perfect forms of man’ ‘to become’ .....	144
Table 76. Imperative forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	146
Table 77. Imperative forms of man’ ‘to become’ .....	146
Table 78. Optative personal suffixes for verbs .....	148
Table 79. Optative personal suffixes for copulas .....	148
Table 80. Optative finite forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	148
Table 81. Optative finite forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	149
Table 82. Optative finite forms of man’ ‘to become’ .....	149
Table 83. Optative finite forms of copula .....	149
Table 84. Conditional forms of šé- ‘to eat (Y.OBJ)’ .....	152
Table 85. Conditional forms of girmín- ‘to write’ .....	153
Table 86. Conditional forms of the copula.....	154
Table 87. Negative present forms of copula .....	156
Table 88. Negative past forms of copula.....	156
Table 89. The distribution of the negative morpheme in Nager .....	157
Table 90. The distribution of the negative morpheme in Hunza.....	159
Table 91. Non-finite forms of verbs .....	160
Table 92. Conjunctive participle forms of ní- ‘to go’ .....	161
Table 93. Perfective participle forms of jú- ‘to come’ .....	161
Table 94. Conjunctive participle forms of jú- ‘to come’ .....	161
Table 95. (General) infinitive forms of copula.....	163
Table 96. Perfective participle forms of copula .....	164
Table 97. Imperfective participle forms of copula.....	164
Table 98. Finalis forms of copula.....	164
Table 99. Paradigm of @-rúŋ ‘hand’ with personal prefix .....	170
Table 100. Echo-forms of @-rúŋ ‘hand’ only with /š/ FSM .....	170
Table 101. Echo-forms of @-rúŋ ‘hand’ with /š/ and /m/ FSMs.....	170
Table 102. Correlation between vowels and degrees.....	174
Table 103. Function of vowel lengthening .....	175

Table 104. Function of reduplication .....	176
Table 105. Classification of converbs according to Tikkanen (1995) .....	205
Table 106. Rearranged converbs .....	217
Table 107. Rearranged converbal analytic expressions .....	219
Table 108. Converbs and converbal analytic expressions.....	225
Table 109. Ratio of distal to proximal reference.....	228
Table 110. Components of transitivity (Hopper and Thompson 1980: 252) .....	237
Table 111. Three types of personal prefixes.....	239
Table 112. Extension examples of each nominal class .....	240
Table 113. Subject suffixes for verbs .....	241
Table 114: Subject suffixes for copulas .....	241
Table 115. Temporal labels which finite verbs can be conjugated in .....	248
Table 116. Ø- vs. I-stem pairs of intransitive verbs .....	249
Table 117. Ø- vs. I-stem pairs of transitive verbs .....	253
Table 118. Sample texts .....	255
Table 119. The numbers of each stem.....	256
Table 120. Distribution of c/overt objects of each stem .....	256
Table 121. Distribution of overt objects to the nominal class.....	257
Table 122. Distribution on number of X-class overt objects .....	259
Table 123. Distribution on number of Y-class overt objects .....	260
Table 124. Definiteness of X/Y-class overt objects .....	260
Table 125. Average distances of X/Y-class overt objects occurring in the same clause	261
Table 126. The hierarchy of verb stems in Burushaski.....	263
Table 127. Relation between the features of bases and the transitivity of stems.....	266
Table 128. Combinations and abbreviations of verb stems .....	267
Table 129. d-less transitive and d-prefixed resultative verbs.....	270
Table 130. Two pairs possibly with resultative interpretation .....	272
Table 131. Pairs of d-less andative and d-prefixed venitive verbs.....	273
Table 132. Other d-verbs possible to be considered as venitive .....	273
Table 133. Fientive verb stems .....	274
Table 134. Secondary stative verb stems .....	274
Table 135. Transitive Ø-I-stem and intransitive d-Ø-stem verbs.....	275
Table 136. Pairs of stems with and without d- prefix in the same meaning .....	277
Table 137. Correlation between demonstratives and -an in texts from Hunza .....	285
Table 138. Correlation between hin/han/hik ‘one’ and -an in texts from Hunza.....	286
Table 139. Distribution of singular nouns along specificity and referentiality.....	287

Table 140. Distribution of all plural nouns in the text čhúmoe minás .....	288
Table 141. Distribution of plural nouns along specificity and referentiality .....	288
Table 142. Formal distribution of copular predicate arguments on polarity and referentiality .....	290
Table 143. Relation between grammatical roles and information flow .....	293
Table 144. Relation between grammatical roles and shapes of nominal phrases .....	295
Table 145. Distance of the arguments of each role from the predicate .....	296
Table 146. Rate of following the predicate .....	296
Table 147. Distance of the locatives of each kind of clauses from the predicate .....	296