

Pelliot tibétain 1285

1. Content: Story of Bon and Gshen competing in their ability to cure diseases.

2. Note: scroll. The beginning and the end are missing. Recto, 191 lines. Verso, 151 lines between the columns of a Chinese Buddhist text. For the Chinese text, cf. Catalogue VI (95). The two lines numbered v1' and v2' which are the continuation of recto are written in inverse direction against the others which are numbered v1 through v149. The texts on five small fragments (or pièces) are not included in this edition. Cf. Lalou (1958: 179-181).

Pelliot tibétain 1288 + IOL Tib J 750

1. Content: Old Tibetan Annals (version I).

2. Note: scroll. Originally a single document which is divided into two parts: Pelliot tibétain 1288 and IOL Tib J 750. The beginning and the end are missing. Recto, 307 lines. The line 53 is cut in the middle: the upper part is on Pelliot tibétain 1288 and the lower part on IOL Tib J 750. The line 104: in the vermilion part, the last letter b is written in black. Verso, Chinese Buddhist texts. Cf. Catalogue VI (100) and Enoki (1962: C27). Similar to Or.8212/187.
